3- GPS QUICK TRAINING—Remember to put on your tracks and mark with date and something that makes sense to you.

Thank you to Keith Hambly, JR Schenk, and Sheila Schenk for taking the time to come and help us,

4-- Summer Events- Riding June 6th (Thursday) Above Girl's camp . Meet at the Ranger Station at the mouth of Logan Canyon at 9:15 A.M. We will leave trail head at 10:00 A.M. This should be an easy ride. Some uphill and a walk through Sage brush.

Riding June 9th 9:00 A.M. High Creek Waterfall Meet at the log fence. (1.7 miles from where the oil changes to gravel) Road riding to the trail head. There is a creek crossing that is slightly difficult. Trail goes down into the creek, a couple of rocks to get over. About 15 feet in all to cross. We will help anyone who needs it. There is a footbridge. The creek right now is only a foot deep. About 3 or 4 miles total.

Riding June 13th. Jardine (Woods Camp trail head) tree. If you are going, let me know, the parking is limited and we need to horse pool. 5-6 miles. Very easy water crossings. Some uphill. Narrow trail with steep drop off in places. We will tie up to walk down to the Jardine tree which is over 3500 years. No bushwhacking

Riding June 16 th Cindy to be determined..Father's Day

Riding June 20th Bunch grass from the highway to white pine. Parking at turnout on the right after Tony Grove turnout. This is a lot of climbing and about a 6-8 miles ride. Good conditioning for Yellowstone trip. Bring a lunch. Meet at the Logan Ranger District at 9:00 A.M.

RIDING and SUMMER SOCIAL JUNE 22nd ASS IN SADDLE AT 9:00 A.M. DINNER 6:00 P.M.
