ever seen, the heart had no pathology, and all chambers and valves were normal. Many believe it was the size of Secretariat's heart that contributed to his amazing performance. Although, most of our equine friends may not possess the literal large heart as Secretariat's or win a Triple Crown, but our horses have nonetheless captured our hearts and in the most poetic sense have the BIGGEST HEARTS!

So let February be the month where we remember to care for our big-hearted friends by scheduling veterinary checks and stocking up on treats and rewarding our equine partners for their devotion and constant performance.

Paul Deputy

]Hello,
February is here already. This month we are reminded, with red shaped hearts everywhere, to think fondly of our families, friends, and all those who are special in our lives... not forgetting our equine partners.

How many times have you thought fondly of your horse? How many rides have you been on with your horse and thought, 'my horse is all heart!' With hearts in mind, the average horse's heart is nine pounds as compared to the Triple Crown winner Secretariat. Secretariat's heart was exceptional in size and weight and believed to be nearly twenty-two pounds, more than twice the weight of any one of our horses. After Secretariat's death, the veterinarian who tended to Secretariat's post mortem care stated his heart was the largest he had

RTR (Ready to Ride) at NOON

Directions: Go to the North side of 123000 south and about 8th west.
Turn into the road that takes you to the playground and picnic area.
The dirt parking lot before the play area is for trailer parking. I plan on taking the trail north from there.
The ride will be about 3 hours.
Very easy ride. Hazards: Expect bicycles, dogs, joggers and etc.
There will be one bridge to cross
and one bridge that we will go under.

With the cold weather lets plan on riding (in the saddle) at noon sharp.
That way we can ride in the warmer
part of the day.
